

Pioneers

This issue of the Journal is dedicated to the following pioneers who have been constant source of inspiration.

- Human blunders usually do more to shape history than human wickedness.

- A.J.P. Taylor
- If all economists were laid end to end, they would not reach a conclusion.

- George Bernard Shaw
- Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile.

- Albert Einstein
- The greatest glory in living lies not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

- Nelson Mandela
- If life were predictable it would cease to be life, and be without flavor.

- Eleanor Roosevelt
- If you set your goals ridiculously high and it's a failure, you will fail above everyone else's success.

- James Cameron
- When you reach the end of your rope, tie a knot in it and hang on.

- Franklin D. Roosevelt
- Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail.

- Ralph Waldo Emerson
- It is during our darkest moments that we must focus to see the light.

- Aristotle
- Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.

- Thomas A. Edison
- One individual may die for an idea, but that idea will, after his death, incarnate itself in a thousand lives.

- Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose
