

BLISSFULL THOUGHTS

Each soul is potentially divine. The goal is to manifest this Divinity within, by controlling nature, external and internal.

Do this either by work, or worship, or psychic control, or philosophy – by one, or more, or all of these – and be free.

This is the whole of religion. Doctrines, or dogmas, or rituals, or books, or temples, or forms, are but secondary details.

- Swami Vivekananda

Criticism, like rain, should be gentle enough to nourish a man's growth without destroying his roots.

- Frank A. Clark

Happiness lies not in mere possession of money; it lies in the joy of achievement, in the thrill of creative effort. The joy and moral stimulation of work no longer must be forgotten in the mad chase of evanescent profits.

- Franklin D Roosevelt

We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not figures.

- Bailey

Good to forgive, best to forget.

- Robert Browning

Without labour nothing prospers.

- Sophocles

Every child should be taught that useful work is worship and that intelligent labour is the highest form of prayer.

- Robert Ingersoll

To work alone you have the right but never claim its results. Let not the results of action be your motive, nor be attached to inaction.

- Bhagwad Gita , II.47
